

This assignment should be shot outside in natural light. Turn your flash off. This assignment will not work correctly with the flash on. Use focus lock to create two similar images with different focus points. You should have two images that contain the same subject. There should be a foreground and a background. In the first picture, focus lock on the background. In the second, focus lock on the foreground. Post your assignment images to your Eportfolio.